Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1, 2, and 5 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by US 6,198,362 (hereafter Harada).

Harada discloses, referring to figure 1 and 2, a circuit board having two sides, the circuit board comprising: A substrate (not shown, see col. 6, lines 5-20) having a first array of vias (leftmost vias 7) to connect to a first agent (8), the first array of vias defining a first set of channels on the substrate, and having a second array of vias (rightmost vias 7), the second array of vias defining a second set of channels on the substrate; and a bus comprising bus traces (6), wherein each bus trace is routed in only one channel belonging to the first set of channels and routed in only one channel belonging to the second set of channels [claim 1], wherein the first and second agents are mounted upon only one of the two sides of the circuit board [claim 2], wherein the first array of vias are arranged in substantially linear rows and the second array of vias are arranged in substantially linear rows [claim 5].
